

Remote Patient Monitoring: The Unstoppable Wave of New Care Models – The Records

Sep 24, 2021

With the advent of remote patient monitoring, innovators are piloting a myriad of new care models. Be it in the prevention of hospital re-admissions or reduction in unplanned visits to the Emergency Room; the mandate is clear: broaden access to care and intervene to provide the best patient outcomes. Join us for the third instalment of The Records by Novartis BIOME and Galen Growth as we explore perspectives from the healthcare system, industry and the HealthTech ecosystem. Watch the video here
